

Guidance and information for applicants

- CVs are not accepted and will not be read by the panel.
- Please read the advertisement and JD/Person Spec before completing the application form to ensure you have the experience/skills to do the job effectively to a high standard.
- Set out clearly how you meet each of the criteria in the Person Specification; numbering your paragraphs to match each criteria.
- It is not sufficient to just state that you have the experience/skills etc; you must give examples of how you meet each criteria.
- Use short sentences and paragraphs, avoiding jargon and repetition.

For example:

If a criterion for an office job was – Extensive experience of spreadsheets.

A poor answer would be – I use spreadsheets most days.

A better answer would be – I use spreadsheets on a daily basis to collate attendance data, for finance reports, and to forecast future budgets. I create complex spreadsheet calculations and have experience of training office juniors.

Details of referees

- One referee should be your current or most recent employer. If you are not currently working with children but have done so in the past, a reference will be required from the employer by whom you were most recently employed in work with children.
- The school may seek references on short-listed candidates unless you request that we don't; and may approach previous employers for information to verify particular experience of qualifications, before the interview.
- If you are currently working with children, on a paid or voluntary basis, your current employer will be asked about disciplinary offences relating to children, including any penalty which is time expired and whether you have been the subject of any child protection concerns, and if so, the outcome of the enquiry or disciplinary procedure. If you are not currently working with children but have done so in the past, the relevant previous employer will be asked about those issues.
- Referees must be in a professional capacity; references from relatives or friends writing solely in the capacity of friends will not be accepted.
